Rules and Order of Debate

A Bill involving Imperial interests, and repealing Acts of vast magnitude, ought not to be proceeded with as a Private Bill, and it ought to be introduced as a Public Bill Feb 14, 709, 710

A Member who had placed on the Paper a Notice of Opposition to the Second Reading of a Bill, because the Bill was read 2° in his absence, cannot raise a Question of Order Feb 20, 1189

The Ruling to which the hon. Member referred was inapplicable to the present Motion, viz., the Adjournment of the House for discussing a definite matter of Urgent Public Importance, as it is an alleged grievance requiring instant remedy (Indian Cotton Duties) Feb 21, 1285

The Question as to whether the hon. Member had voted in the previous night's Division, was now asked too late, but the general rule is, that Members who have heard the Question put, either the first or second time, ought to go in the Lobby and vote. It is not possible for the House to maintain that a Member shall be forced to vote, and there are means of escape which are known to Members Feb 22, 1415, 1416, 1417

The hon. Member's Motion comes within the Rule against forestalling the discussion on Bills, and is, therefore, out of Order Feb 22, 1439

There was no objection to a Member leaving his card upon his seat, instead of his hat, to secure that seat for the whole of the Sittings Feb 26, 1571
